

Anna Elisabeth (Betty)

Sullivan Strohacker

In this history, Betty relates her life in Kerrville where she came to live when she was a young girl. She talks about her early years going to school and working in town on the Kerr County Rations Board. Then she tells about her life as a young mother and the wife of a rancher. She explains about the Home Demonstration Clubs and other activities she became involved with such as the Republican Women's Club and the PTA.
