

Waldean McDougall Groff

Waldean Groff was born in Gillespie County, Texas, but she and her husband, Jack, have lived and worked in the Kerrville area for more than 50 years. Waldean taught dance and acrobatics in a studio in downtown Kerrville for many years. The Groffs are also ranchers and so have always been involved in that aspect of Hill Country living. In this history, she talks about her activities related to the sheep and goat industry. She was very active in all aspects of the National Wool Growers Association and the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers. Under her direction, the headquarters of the National Make-It-With-Wool organization moved to Kerrville. In this position, she traveled all over the U.S. to conventions and other Make-It-With-Wool activities to promote the use of wool and angora fibers. It also brought national recognition to Kerrville as a center for the goat and sheep industry.
