

Elizabeth Holm Real

In this story, Elizabeth Real talks about her life in Kerr County and her involvement in community affairs especially those revolving around music and theater. Elizabeth was a professional singer before she moved to Kerrville more than 25 years ago and brought her considerable talent to numerous performances at the Point Theater as well as other area venues. In addition to her community involvement, Elizabeth is an active participant with her husband, Aime Frank, in the day-to-day operation of the Real Ranch in the Turtle Creek area where she and Aime Frank's daughter, Rhonda, run several youth camp sessions each summer.
